The Justice Minister was informed of the death early this morning by suicide of the former teacher blamed for act of pedophilia in Villefontaine.
An investigation was immediately opened by the Prosecutor to establish the exact circumstances of the death. The individual was subject to special monitoring, having already attempted suicide.
The Justice Minister is absolutely committed to shedding light on the circumstances of death. It affirms its determination to move forward with the Penitentiary Administration towards strengthening specific measures of risk prevention of suicides in correctional settings.
Jean-Jacques Urvoas fully supports the families of the victims and also presents its condolences to the family of the accused.
The fight against child sexual abuse is a government priority as shown in the bill says "Villefontaine" to be definitively adopted in Parliament this week and will take effect immediately.
